

We regret that the next issue of the Newsletter will not be available until the first week in September.

Neighbourhood Watch Scheme. Thames Valley Police have recently launched a Neighbourhood Watch Scheme. A guide to the setting up of a scheme has been sent to all Parish Councils in the Aylesbury Vale District, and any person or group of people who are interested in setting up a scheme are invited to contact the Parish Clerk on Soulbury 296.

Aylesbury Vale Holiday Walks. Copies of the walks programme are available from the Parish Clerk, 5 The Mead, Soulbury.

Transport Lifelines. The Buckinghamshire Council for Voluntary Service is hoping to compile a guide to Voluntary transport schemes within the county. There is at present no scheme in Soulbury, but if anyone feels that such a scheme is needed in the village and is prepared to organise it will they please contact; Anne Stobart; Bucks CVS, Walton House, Walton Street, Aylesbury, Bucks. HP21 7QQ. Telephone, Aylesbury 21036.

Wing County Secondary School - School Meals Service. The Kitchen Staff at Wing are considering "going private" if the School Meals service is withdrawn. They are conscious of their lack of knowledge in accountancy and the complete organisation of a service. If there is anyone in the area willing to give advice could they please ring Mrs. J. Gurney, Aylesbury 681504.

The Old School House. Mrs. Sheila Morgan wonders whether anyone in the village noticed anything which would help her to find the maple tree which was stolen (almost certainly not by anyone from Soulbury) on the night of Saturday July 19th, from the garden of the Old School. She would also be most grateful if dog owners would prevent their dogs from fouling her front lawn.

Car Boot Sale. The Car Boot Sale jointly organised by the Women's Fellowship and the Women's Institute in aid of the Aylesbury Vale Hospice Appeal, made a profit of £373.60 which was presented by Mrs. M. Bunyon and Mrs. J. Kellner to the appeal organisers.

Church Fete. The P.C.C wish to thank anyone who helped in any way towards the success of the Church Fete, which in spite of the unsettled weather again achieved a record amount, which was £847.00. They particularly wish to thank Dr. and Mrs. Owen for again making their home and garden available for this event.

Social Circle Outing. Would those members of the Social Circle who are not going on the outing to Waterperry Gardens on August 13th please let Mrs. Jones know as soon as possible. Tel: Soulbury 349.

 We wish every happiness to Andrew and Julia Underwood on their recent marriage.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Liz Miller is not well at the moment, we hope that she will soon be feeling better.

Congratulations to Penny Owen and Jane Pargeter who have both now qualified as doctors.

We offer heartfelt sympathy to Isobel and Tom Smith on the sad loss of their son Tommy.
