

The Women's Fellowship takes pleasure and some pride in publishing this one hundredth edition of the Newsletter. During the years since its inception in November, 1975 we have received many compliments and just a few brickbats; the brickbats we have heeded and the compliments we have tried to live up to. This, however, does seem an appropriate occasion to acknowledge with most sincere thanks all the help we receive from those in the village who are not Fellowship members but who have, over the years, made a very real contribution to such success as the Newsletter has enjoyed by assisting with deliveries and the collection of subscriptions and in other ways. We hope we shall be forgiven if we overlook any helper's name but amongst those to whom we are indebted we should like to name Mr. Austin, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Embleton, Karen Giles, Mrs. Giles, Rachel Hewitt, Mrs. Noble, Jayne Norman, Mark Norman, Mrs. Maureen Payne who has been typist for the Newsletter for nearly three years, David Pooley, Guy Pooley, Mr. Scholefield and Mrs. Scott.

From the foregoing it will be seen that the Newsletter is very much a village effort and we have tried to ensure that it reflected village views as well as village activities and interests. We discover, in perusing back numbers, that amongst topics of especial concern during these one hundred issues have been the fight against the abattoir, the recurring threat of the airport, the standard of bus services, Weight Restrictions and relief roads, and the Silver Jubilee celebrations. We are also reminded that we started the Newsletter for an experimental six months period. We think we have proved ourselves.

From the Parish Council Meeting.

Heavy Goods Vehicle traffic through Soulbury. From recent conversations with the area Traffic Division of Thames Valley Police Force, we are informed that periodic checks are being made on vehicles using the C20 road into Soulbury from the Three Locks. A number of cases have been brought against drivers wrongly using this road. The B4032 road from Stewkley via Soulbury to Linslade is not restricted; neither is the gated road to Wing, the signs on this road are to inform drivers of restrictions ahead, i.e. at Wing.

We are extremely sorry to learn that Mrs. Hilda Broad, who will be remembered by so many in the village, has been far from well. We send her our very best wishes.
