

ENVIRONMENT GROUP

At their recent meeting the Environment Group recognised that there was little organised help from any outside bodies to cope with the litter problem, and that residents must take the responsibility of keeping the village tidy. There will therefore be a Village Clean-Up on Saturday 12th November at 10.30 a.m. - meeting at The Boot car park. If anyone can spare an hour to help - it would make a great difference to have a large number of volunteers. So put on the rubber gloves and boots and come and join in. Any assistance will be greatly appreciated.

Tree planting will also be commencing shortly, if anyone is interested in helping please contact Liz Miller, Soulbury 545.

PLAYING FIELD

We are aware that we have already made this point in previous issues. But because of the seriousness of the problem, we would like to bring it to reader's attention again. It has been encouraging to see the children using the playing field, but their pleasure has been spoilt and their health put at risk by the numerous dog foulings left in the play area.

TRADCRAFT SALE

Saturday 19th November 2.30 p.m. at Soulbury Methodist Chapel. On Sale : A wide selection of craft items, all individually hand made; variety of foods, including dried fruits, nuts, tea & coffee; Christmas cards, paper and decorations. In marketing these items tradcraft aims to promote Christian principles of justice in World Trade. This involves buying their products from groups in developing countries that show a concern for their workers, expressed in reasonable wages and working conditions and provision of health care and other benefits for workers. So when you buy a tradcraft item you are helping the poor in developing countries to receive a fair wage and so support themselves.

THE AIRPORT

It has been pointed out that in the daily press recently there are moves afoot to build a second runway at Stansted. Even if this is resisted for the present, who can doubt that sooner or later it will be built. We must be forever thankful that the Airport didn't come to Wing and remain vigilant over any future threats to our environment.
