

FIREWORKS

At this season may we remind our readers to take great care when setting off any fireworks, and to keep a safe distance from them. Pets are always very frightened and are best kept indoors during the evening. We are sure that our new Policeman P.C. Richards would like to remind us to follow the firework code, and he would also like to point out that the new number for contacting him at Aylesbury Police Station is 0296 - 396000.

"CHRONICLE OF THE VALE"

A copy of this book which is a "Doomsday" survey of life in the villages of the Vale of Aylesbury in the mid 1980's and includes information about Soulbury, has been presented to the village by the Friends of the Vale of Aylesbury who compiled it. They are looking for someone who will look after it and act as a corresponding member, contributing to any future up-datings or possible similar surveys. For instance, they are considering assisting with the revision of Pevsner's "The Buildings of England". If any person or organisation is interested perhaps they could get in touch with Mrs. Liz Miller, Soulbury 545.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

This month's meeting is at Church Farm House when Mrs. Angela Beeson will be helping to make floral arrangements which can also be used at Christmas. Members are asked to bring a few suitable flowers, some greenery and scissors, and a centre piece, for example, a candle to make a small table decoration. Also the evening will finish with a raffle of any other floral arrangements which Mrs. Beeson completes during her demonstration. Oasis and dishes will be on sale at the meeting.

It was with great sorrow that we heard recently of the deaths of both Mrs. Cecily Masters and Mrs. Mary Dunham.

Mrs. Dunham was a member of both the Women's Institute and the Women's Fellowship and had a great interest in and did a lot of work for Arthritis Care. Her gentle courtesy, good humour and sincere caring for others always made it a pleasure to be in her company. She will be sadly missed.

Owing to serious illness coinciding with her coming to Soulbury nearly ten years ago, Mrs. Masters was not able to lead her former active life, but her quiet good sense, her charm of manner and her interest in all around her were much appreciated by those who were privileged to know her. We extend our sincere sympathy both to Mrs. Hilary Pooley and her family, and to Mr. Dunham and his family.
