

We are very happy to be able to announce that we are celebrating the completion of nine years of the Soulbury Newsletter by waiving the charge for this and the next five issues; it will therefore be April of next year before our readers are again asked for any money. We are able to do this because now that the Newsletter is printed at County Hall, Aylesbury it is in part subsidised by the Council for Voluntary Services.

Bus Services: Mr. R. Keen and Mr. T. Holman, respectively County and District Councillors, are supporting the petition regarding the bus services through Soulbury. They are talking with their colleagues on the Council with a view to co-ordinating protests from other affected villages and are also advising the Parish Council of their findings. The Leighton Linlade transport users committee have also promised support.

Housing Applications: Applications for inclusion on the A.V.D.C. Housing List should be made directly to Mr. M.A. Belton, Housing Manager, Aylesbury Vale District Council, 84 Walton Street, Aylesbury, HP21 7QT.

Breast Scanning Programme: The doctor in charge of this programme has visited the proposed site on Chapel Hill and finds that because of the slope it is quite unsuitable for the equipment on the van. The Parish Council are therefore looking for a level site which can accomodate the 40ft vehicle and provide an electrical supply, and with toilet facilities for the staff. Will anyone who has any helpful suggestions please telephone Mrs. Liz Miller on Soulbury 545.

A horse owned by Mr. T. Hall of Ivy Cottage, Soulbury was brutally injured by a person or persons during the weekend of the 15th/16th September. A vet has been attending the horse which may have to be destroyed as it is blind in one eye and paralysed on one side of its face due to the injury. A reward of £25 is offered for any information which leads to the conviction of the culprit/s.

Come and Join Us! Books! Books! Books! And more besides will be found at Soulbury's Christian Book Day to be held on October 13th in the Club Room, by popular demand. From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. exciting books will be on sale along with tapes and stationery - a golden opportunity to get your Christmas cards before the rush! Tell the children about the special Childrens' Corner where they can enter our colouring competition. Tell your neighbours and friends about our free refreshments. And don't forget - bring yourself along too.

The Vicar and the P.C.C. wish to thank Mr. Parrott and all who helped to make the churchyard look so nice. Other members of the village have also asked us to express their appreciation of the wonderful job that has been done.

Mrs. Ashburner and Mrs. Belsham would like to thank those who supported the Tupperware party. The sum of £35 was raised for Church funds
