

On numbering this Newsletter we notice that it marks the completion of ten years of keeping the village in touch with local events, news of neighbours and topics of general concern. We hope we will be able to continue this service for at least another ten years, and remind our readers that we do depend on them for items to be included.

Craft and Produce Sale:

The very successful sale held in the Clubroom on the 14th September resulted in a total of over £417 for the work of Helen House. The Women's Fellowship wish to thank the many people who supported this event with items for sale and by spending such a splendid lot of money. They would particularly like to thank Mrs. Rosemary Dowell and her employer for their generous gift of the unusual and attractive plastic ware.

Environment Group:

The Parish Council at their recent meeting approved the plan submitted by the group for the planting of trees, principally on The Green and in The Mead. The next stage will be to order the trees and organise volunteers for the planting. It is also necessary to raise part of the cost of the trees. Further information about this will be included in a letter which the group hope to deliver around the village shortly. The plan as approved has taken into consideration the observations and comments received by the group for which they are most grateful.

Harvest Supper:

There is still time to order tickets for the Harvest Supper on the 14th October. The closing date is October 7th but book early to avoid disappointment.

*****
Cookery Demonstration:

The Social Circle meeting on the 9th October will take the form of a demonstration by "Culinaire", and will be open to anyone who wishes to attend. The meeting starts at 2.30 p.m. and visitors will be most welcome.

We offer congratulations to Heather and Ian Parrott on the birth of their daughter, Eleanor Gillian, on the 8th September.

We wish every happiness to Tracey Lee and Richard Underwood on the occasion of their marriage on the 7th September.

We belatedly welcome to the village Wanda Mallows and Clive Warner who have come to live in the High Road.
