INNOCENT HARRIS CHARITY A new trustee of this, the oldest of Soulbury Charities, has recently been appointed by the Parish Council, and we thought readers might be interested to hear more of the charity's history. Two cottages were left in a Will dated 1660 by Innocent Harris, a blind man. These were probably what is now the thatched property in Hollingdon, opposite Grove Farm. The rents from these cottages being £2 each, less the cost of land-tax and repairs, plus rents from two pieces of land of about 4½ acres in total, were given to the poor of the parish, "in shares varying from 1 shilling to 2s6d." (I wonder how this was decided)? The Charity was originally administered by the two churchwardens, but in 1940 the Parish Council was given the power of appointing two trustees. In 1941 the Trustees were given permission by the Charity Commissioners to sell the two cottages in Hollingdon, and invest the proceeds. This then resulted in an income of about £6 a year, which was held over until there was enough to distribute in cash to the elderly or poor. More recently the income has diminished and only occasionally (about every 10 years) can £1 or so be added to the Christmas parcels which are made up by the Stapleford Charity, and given to all the senior citizens in Soulbury.

PRODUCE SHOW W.I. There were a disappointing number of entries, especially for the vegetable section, but the few people who entered obviously enjoyed the occasion. The Women's Institute would like to thank them for their support. Approximately £100 was raised for the W.I. Funds.

ST. JOHN'S AMBULANCE Mrs Cynthia Bunning would like to thank all those who gave so generously to the recent house-to-house collection, £58 was raised for their funds.

We are sorry to learn that Mr Fred Winsor is unwell, we wish him a speedy recovery.

We are pleased that Mr Dennis Jones is now home after a spell in hospital, and making steady progress; and Miss Sarah Conquest has recovered well from her recent accident.

A collection for Spastics, taken in the spring, raised a total of £34, Mr Selby collecting £14 from the Green and Mrs Morris £20 from the Mead and Stewkley Road.

We are pleased to welcome Miss Adrienne Spens-Black and Mr David Knapp, who have moved into Chapel Hill.

We would like to wish 'good luck' to Danny Maher on his six month trip "Truck Africa."

Found Have you lost a budgie? One has been found, he is blue with a white head and very used to people and noise. Please ring 270416 anytime, where he is being well looked after.
